CHIEF WENTWORTH notified the Selectmen that Office Brandon Walker has resigned his position with the Sugar Hill Police Department to take a position in another town. The Town will advertise for a full time officer. Chief Wentworth submitted Motor Vehicle RSA updates.

The Selectmen approved the use of the Meetinghouse on September 19, 2009 for the Callender & Goulet Wedding.

The Selectmen reviewed the final copy of the grant proposal that Barbara Serafini had submitted for assistance with the Meetinghouse repairs.

STEVE BOULANGER met with the Selectmen to discuss the Powell Property located off Dyke Road (Map230, Lot 8). The property extends into Easton and the owner would like to get a building permit in Easton and the Easton Selectmen would like the Sugar Hill Selectmen's opinion since the access road for emergency services would come out of Sugar Hill. Chief Clark has inspected the road and written a response. The Selectmen and Chief Clark will put together a letter for the Town of Easton listing the ways a permit would be acceptable. The owner will also need a new driveway permit as the existing entrance is not correct.

The Selectmen reviewed the lot line adjustment between the Town and Harold Aldrich. The Planning Board had several corrections for the plat and Jennifer will contact Harry Burgess and have the corrected copy for the May meeting.

The Selectmen were requested to review the elderly exemption qualifications and will do so for next year's warrant.

The Selectmen reviewed the 2008 Sales Ratio information as received from the Department of Revenue Administration.

The Selectmen signed a contract addendum for Purvis & Associates as the DRA requested clarification.
