Attorney Waugh's office called this afternoon and cancelled his presentation for this evening due to ill health. The Municipal Law Update will be rescheduled.

Stevenson Services gave an estimated appraisal of 75,000 to 100,000 for the Meetinghouse clock so that we can update our insurance records.

The Selectmen received an e-mail and faxed letter from Alex Aaron in regard to her property that is currently under litigation. The Selectmen will not meet with Ms. Aaron as she had requested and they will forward her letter to the Town Attorney and advise her that all correspondence should go through the Town Attorney.

The Selectmen received an inquiry from PSNH in regard to expanding the fenced in area on their property located at Map 204, Lot 9 on Streeter Pond Road. A building permit will be required and they will be notified.

The Selectmen received a request for a zoning permit for an accessory structure to be built on Sunset Hill Road (Map 219, Lot 31.2). The intent of the owner is not clear but the Selectmen do not issue building permits for accessory use when there is no primary building. The owner will be contacted to clarify the request.

The Selectmen discussed the fees for using the Meetinghouse and the Crapo Building. The fees that will begin on July 1, 2011 are as follows:

Meetinghouse – Resident	$125.00
