Accepted minutes of Dec 15 Meeting as revised by Jennifer Gaudette. Unanimous
Noted that we are still waiting for proposal for Conservation Funds for Streeter Pond inlet work.
MARGO CONNORS volunteered to expedite submission of proposal.

Treasurer's report BILL FRASER there is an additional $5,000 in the Conservation (land use transfer) Fund.

MARGO CONNORS reported that we will have the same budget for 2017 as 2016

Discussed actions to comment on proposed Air National Guard resumption of low altitude flights over Maine and New Hampshire. TIM WILLIAMS reported 3 recent news broadcasts by Maine Public Radio that National Guard was requesting FAA permits to resume flights. Noted detrimental effects from such flights in the past. ERIC JOSTROM suggested Sugar Hill Selectmen (not Conservation Committee) contact Adjutant General NH National Guard to request information on how to comment.

MARGO CONNORS said she would initiate such a letter by selectmen.

We should also contact Skyler Boutin as new state rep.

Invitation to Ammonoosuc Energy team meeting Sat Feb 11 8:30-noon at White Mtn School.

MARGO CONNORS reported that Presby Corporation had purchased several lots on Hidden Acres Road on Streeter Pond for development . Planning Board will hold hearing and SHCC should send a representative to hearing Feb 1 at 5:30.

TIM WILLIAMS volunteered to be representative to above meeting. SHCC concerns were wildlife, shoreline protection, wetlands and view shed.

Next meeting Feb 16 2017 at 6:00 PM
